

I am in favor of the current Indiana legislation which limits telephone solicitations. This legislation has significantly reduced the number of unwanted telephone calls we receive. I believe lessening this effective legislation is a mistake. If I, as an individual, wish to make contact with charities or businesses I will do so. I do not wish to receive unwanted solicitations.